Annex 2 - Conditions consistent with the operating Schedule

a) General – all four licensing objectives

As Morlan is a Centre for Faith and Culture is under supervision by Capel y Morfa and as it is situated in a new building in a quiet part of Aberystwyth with no houses adjoining, no problems can be foreseen. However, our intention at all times will be to ensure that all of the aspects highlighted below will take a very prominent role in our planning of events and in the general use of our facilities.

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

Because of the nature of the entertainment which will be held in Morlan, we do not foresee any problems arising involving crime and disorder. In any case, we will always ensure that experienced supervisors will always be in attendance at the main entry point and in the Hall.

c) Public safety

As Morlan is a new building and as public safety and health and safety regulations were in the brief issued to the Architect, we are confident that our building meets the highest standards in this respect. In particular, fire regulations will play a prominent role in our arrangements and any recommendations from the fire authority will be followed.

d) The prevention of public nuisance

Because of the location of Morlan no possibility of causing a public nuisance can be foreseen. From our experience of using Morlan in its first 6 months, we have seen that events which take place within the building cannot be heard in the immediate neighbourhood. However, it will be our intention to take this aspect very seriously in planning events. This will especially be the case where amplified music is involved.

e) The protection of children from harm

Amongst our voluntary workers many are very experienced in working with children – such as school teachers and Sunday school teachers. In any events which are arranged for children, we will ensure that all those involved will be registered to work with children and we will also ensure that the correct number of supervisors are in attendance.
