Suggested structure for each objective:

1. Objective overview
2. Key achievements in 2025–26
3. Impact of activity on communities
4. Case studies / examples
5. Challenges encountered

This chapter would likely include:

- Updates from thematic groups (e.g., climate and environment, resilient communities, thriving economy, health and well-being).
- Highlights from place-based and partnership projects.
- Cross-PSB collaboration where relevant.
- Poverty and Tackling Hardship

Chapter 5: Cross-cutting Themes and Partnerships

Purpose: Show how work links across organisations and themes.

Potential areas:

- Work addressing inequalities and social justice.
- Welsh language promotion and cultural well-being.
- Engagement with WG and Future Generations Office.

Chapter 6: Engagement and Involvement

Purpose: Demonstrate how residents and partners have shaped delivery.

Content summary:

- Engagement activities undertaken during 2025–26.
- How community insights shaped delivery or priorities.
- Involvement of TCCs, voluntary sector, young people, and communities of interest.
- How this learning will inform the joint interim Well-being Plan and the 2028 Assessment of Local Well-being.

Next steps Chapter 7: Preparing for the PSB Merger (Transition Update)

Purpose: Reflect 2025–26 as a transitional year.

The emerging themes are currently being outlined as follows :

- Economy and skills – planning for our future workforce.

- Collaboration and integration
- Climate and Nature
- Community Capacity and resilience
- Whole Systems approach – Food, Health & Well-being
- Preparations for the first merged PSB meeting in September 2026.
